

2006 Addison County Fair – Results

Billings Farm’s impressive showing on August 12 at the 58th Annual Addison County Fair (New Haven, VT) in both the individual and group categories – highlighted by First place award for the Best 3 Females Bred by Exhibitor for the second year in a row – allows it to retain its “premier herd” status. Other results include:

- Billings Remake Bounty was named Junior Champion, making her the highest ranked heifer in the Jersey show; she also received first place in the Winter Calf Category.
- Billings Legion Mini Me was named Reserve Grand Champion of the entire show.
- Billings Paramount Charm received Best Udder in her class, Reserve Best Udder in Show, and second in the 4 Year Old Category.
- 1st & 4th places in the Produce of Dam category (daughters of a single cow)
- 1st Place in the Dam & Daughter category

Billings Farm also received the Herdsmanship Award for cleanliness and attractiveness of exhibit and presentation of cattle and came in second (by one point) in the Premier Exhibitor category.

Category	Place	Name
Junior Champion	1st	Billings Remake Bounty
Reserve Grand Champion (Open Show)		Billings Legion Mini Me
Reserve Best Udder in Show		Billings Paramount Charm
Winter Calf	1st	Billings Remake Bounty
Winter Calf	2nd	Billings Sultan Camille
4-Year Old Best Udder of her class	2nd	Billings Paramount Charm
Dry Cow	2nd	Billings View Morgan
Intermediate Yearling	3rd	Billings Councillor Comet
Junior Calf	4th	Billings Rebel Charlize

2-Year Old	2nd	Billings Legion Mini Me
3-Year Old	1st	Roseanne's Rosie of Billings ET

Group Classes

Category	Place	Name
Best 3 Females bred by exhibitor	1st	Charm, Morgan, & Mini Me
Produce of Dam (daughters of a single cow)	1st 4th	Mini Me & Morgan Comet & Camille
Dam & Daughter	1st	Charm & Camille